The Ann Arbor Art Center welcomes anyone who is interested in learning about the visual arts. However, we do ask that tuition grant recipients try to attend most class sessions of the course or courses that they receive a scholarship for, unless they notify the Director of Programs of multiple absences or intention to drop the course. Failure to attend class sessions (more than 4) and/or failure to communicate about a significant number of absences will result in the loss of their scholarship status. Additional class materials and any class lab fees are not included in the tuition grant award.
